

BRITISH PAPERS BELIEVE RESULT WILL AID LEAGUE

But Covenant Must Be Remodelled, One Predicts—Form Called Unimportant.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The United States has revolted against supermen in politics, the Evening Standard said today. The Globe says: "It is a good thing that Gov. Cox was snowed under. He had pledged an interference in Irish affairs which England could not and would not have brooked."

Senator Harding does not intend that America shall become involved in the controversies of a powerless League of Nations, the Globe added. The League must be remodelled to permit American membership if it were ever to acquire power.

The Evening Standard said the voters realized Harding opposed the League of Nations, but favored association. It added:

"Names and forms are unimportant, but a co-operative spirit is essential. We hope and believe that spirit will not be lacking."

"Senator Harding's election foreshadows no earth shaking changes. Neither does it mean maintenance of America's pre-war international aloofness," the News said.

"The United States is tired of war, Europe, Versailles and Wilson," the Star said. "America intends to attend to her own affairs and let the rest of the world sink or swim as it may."

Harding Carried Murphy's Own District by 75

Harding got 202 votes to 131 for Cox in the district of Charles F. Murphy.

District. William Herkel, Republican leader of the Twelfth, was holding a Tammany boss. This is the second special celebration last night as a celebration of the District of the 1913 Assembly Legislature.

Special, 48.00

Once in a while a Garment is created that seems to captivate—seems to have some magnetic attraction that makes all women stop, look and admire. Such garments are these.

There is a certain clever turn to the lines, a certain nobbiness in the styling, a certain bit of verve in the trimming that take the eye of every lover of fashionable attire.

Some are fashioned of Silver-Tip Bolivia, others of Velour. Australian Opossum and Raccoon form huge cuddling collars. Many lovely Winter shades.

All women dote on having a Tailleur that is warm enough to alternate with a Winter Wrap on days when the weather permits. One grows so tired of Wraps if they are worn too steadily! But usually, the Winter Tailleur is a costly garment.

It remains for McCreery's to remove that aggravating barrier, price. Here are Tailleurs of a soft, fuzzy fabric called Fullwool, marked surprisingly low. They are cleverly tailored in newest of Mid-Winter styles and some have choker collars of Australian Opossum. Adornment is eliminated to tucks, slot seams and buttons. Many fashionable shades.
